

Somewhere Under The Sun (Daniel O'Donnell)

[intro]

|D | | |

[verse 1]

|D |
The sun in the sky has the look in his eye,
|Em |
The smile on his face as the clouds go by.
|A | |D |
Down on the beach every Bobby and Jeannie is dancin'.
|D |
McDonald's and fries, a painted rocket that flies
|Em |
Magic the dreams of every kid passing by,
|A | |D |
And down on the sand everybody who can is romancing.

[chorus]

|G |A
(But) if you're lookin' for me, I'm down by the sea,
|D G |D
I'm under the sun,
|G |A
Where the seagulls fly under clear blue sky,
|D |
Somewhere under the sun.

[verse 2]

|D |
Hand in hand on the edge of the land
|Em |
Lovers are movin' to the sound of a band
|A |D |
And a carousel is turning to welcome the tide in.
|D |
You know and later the man who sells ice-cream from a van
|Em |
Will run to the bar just as fast as he can,
|A | |D |
And the lady who danced with stars in her eyes will be lonely.
