

Somethin Stupid (BT)

intro - 4 bars guitar

verse 1

|A                    A6                    |Amaj7                    A6
I know I stand in line until you think you have the time
                         |Bm                    E                    |Bm                    E
To spend an evening with me.
|Bm                    E                    |Bm                    E
And if we go someplace to dance I know that there's a chance
                         |A                    A6                    |Amaj7                    A6
You won't be leaving with me.
|A7                    |
And afterwards we drop into a quiet little place
                         |D                    |F
And have a drink or two.
|Bm                    E                    |Bm                    E7
And then I go and spoil it all by saying something stupid
                         |A                    A6                    |Amaj7                    A6
Like "I love you."

bridge 1

|A7                    |
I can see it in your eyes that you despise the same old lines
                         |D                    |
You heard the night before.
|B7                    |
And though it's just a line to you for me it's true
                         |E                    |E7#5
And never seemed so right before.

verse 2

|A                    A6                    |Amaj7                    A6
I practise every day to find some clever lines to say
                         |Bm                    E                    |Bm                    E
To make the meaning come true.
|Bm                    E                    |Bm                    E
But then I think I'll wait until the evening gets late
                         |A                    A6                    |Amaj7                    A6
And I'm alone with you.
|A7                    |
The time is right, your perfume fills my head,
                         |D                    |F
The stars get red and oh, the night's so blue.
|Bm                    E                    |Bm                    E7
And then I go and spoil it all by saying something stupid
                         |A                    A6                    |Amaj7                    A6
Like "I love you."

verse 3

|A A6 |Amaj7 A6
I practise every day to find some clever lines to say

|Bm E |Bm E
To make the meaning come true.

|Bm E |Bm E
But then I think I'll wait until the evening gets late

|A A6 |Amaj7 A6
And I'm alone with you.

|A7 |
The time is right, your perfume fills my head, the stars get red

|D |F
And oh, the night's so blue.

|Bm E |Bm E7
And then I go and spoil it all by saying something stupid

|A |F
Like "I love you."

outro

|A |F |A |F...
I love you I love you I love you
